

MARINE OF THE YEAR
2007
AL SULFRIDGE
DANIEL J. DALY DET 1002

Marine Al Sulfridge, a member of Det 1002, and their Junior Vice Cmdt. Whenever there is a job to be done, Al can be counted on to take the helm and accomplish the task. In the words of Detachment members “Al is the hardest working marine they have” He participates in the Honor Guard for military funerals at Bushnel Nat’l Cemetery and local cemeteries as well. Al also volunteers for ceremonies at the VA hospital. He collects clothing for homeless veterans and during the holidays, helps feed veterans and their families at the Hailey hospital.

Marine Sulfridge is always ready lending a helping hand whether it be Toys for Tots, collecting money for the scholarship program, or picking up donated merchandise for the needy. This is but a short summery of Al’s dedication to his fellow citizens and the Marine Corps League.
