

DEPARTMENT OF FLORIDA
MARINE CORPS LEAGUE

COMMANDANT'S DIRECTIVE
CONDUCT DURING CONFERENCES AND CONVENTIONS

Directive No. 18-1

Promulgated 10 February 2018

All members and guests are reminded that while attending any Department Conference and/or Department Convention they shall conduct themselves in a manner that brings honor to the Marine Corps League and the Department of Florida.

This applies at all times and places, inclusive of the Hospitality Room. Many of our members and guests bring spouses and children with them. Members and guests are reminded that they are representatives of the Marine Corps League and the United States Marine Corps in the eyes of other non-member guests and employees of the conference/convention location.

Drunkenness, disorderly behavior, and profanity will not be tolerated.

By order of,

George LaMont,
Department Commandant
